

SYRACUSE SUFFRAGE MARCH

2,000 Women and 500 Men Parade
—Mass Meeting Draws 5,000.

Special to The New York Times.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 23.—A suffrage demonstration, in which 2,000 women and 500 men, headed by Mayor Louis Will, took part, was held in this city today, followed by a mass meeting of 5,000 at the State Armory.

The procession, brilliant with flaming banners and enlivened by many bands and drum corps, was watched by thousands of people, who applauded it along the line of march.

Practically the entire section of Central New York was represented, and many prominent women from New York City and from the West were in line. Every village in Onondaga County sent a delegation of women, uniformed in white and bearing yellow banners inscribed with the numbers of their districts.

At the State Armory speeches were made by Miss Helen Todd of California, Mayor Will, Miss Caroline Lexow, and Miss Rose Winslow. Others on the speakers' platform were Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse of New York City and Mrs. Harriot Stanton Blatch, President of the Woman's Political Union.

STABS TIRES FOR SPITE.

Beggar, Failing to Get Nickel He Asked For, Cripples Auto.

Refusal to give 5 cents to a man who said he was hungry cost Joseph Lawlor of 219 East Forty-sixth Street, a chauffeur, two automobile tires last night, according to evidence brought out at the hearing of Robert Weston, 23 years old, 329 West Thirtieth Street, in the Men's Night Court.

Lawlor said he was standing beside his taxicab at Park Avenue and Forty-second Street, when Weston asked for a nickel. When he refused, Lawlor said, Weston drew a large knife and slashed the two front tires of the taxicab.

Weston was sentenced to ten days in the Workhouse by Magistrate Marsh.

GAURDIO KILLED BY BULLET.

Dr. Ray Finds Cause of Death of Man Who Was Shot At.

Coroner's Physician Ray performed an autopsy yesterday on the body of Felipo Gaudio, a saloonkeeper, of 1,110 Intervale Avenue, the Bronx, and found that death was due to a bullet wound.

Gaudio fell dead on Thursday afternoon when five shots were fired at him by Pasquale Eppolito of 4,144 Broadway, who said that his victim had been persecuting Mrs. Eppolito. An ambulance surgeon, failing to find a wound on the body, gave the opinion that Gaudio had dropped dead of heart failure from fright.

Dr. Ray found that a bullet had entered his back and penetrated to the right side of the chest, inflicting a mortal wound.
